

FRANCESCA PELLEGRINO

Professor of Aviation and Maritime Law, EU and International Law, University of Messina (Italy)

SEMINAR PROGRAMME

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT OF TRANSPORT IN EUROPE

University of Vigo, Fac. Ciencias Jurídicas e do Traballo, Vigo, Spain, 13-14 April 2015

Monday 13 April:

11:45 (A209): Presentation of the University of Messina, Department of Law and CUST Euromed University Center. www.cust.unime.it

Open session for researchers in the field of Transport Law and all Faculty members.

17:05-18:55 (A1): The definition of sustainable development and the more general questions.

Open session for students of the Maritime Law Course and any Faculty member or researcher with interests in sustainability and transport law.

Tuesday 14 April:

10:00-13:30 (A209): Practical matters in the field of transport.

Session for 15 students of the Maritime Law Course.

Topics:

- The genesis of the principle of sustainable development
- Trail Smelter case
- The Torrey Canyon oil spill
- International conventions on marine pollution: OILPOL, CLC, FUND, MARPOL
- The Barcelona system \(protection of the Mediterranean\)
- Definition of sustainable development in the Brundtland Report
- The three pillars of the sustainability
- The principle of intergenerational equity
- The Rio Conference
- The principles of sustainable development in the EU Treaties and, in particular, in the Lisbon Treaty
- The Erika and Prestige cases
- The Erika legislative packages \(I, II, III\)
- The Johannesburg Declaration on Sustainable Development
- The case law of the European Court of Justice
- New Developments

More information: ftorres@uvigo.es

Organiza

Área de Dereito Mercantil

Universidade de Vigo

Colaboran

Facultade de Ciencias
Xurídicas e do Traballo

Universidade de Vigo

Departamento de Dereito Privado

Universidade de Vigo